Jeff Johnson

Jeff joined Frontiers in 1988 and has been on church planting teams in Pakistan, Afghanistan and Uzbekistan. He and his wife were recently deported from Uzbekistan and are currently back in the states.

Dr. Elaine Vaden

Elaine was a missionary in Zambia and the Philippines and is now director of scholars program for John Stott Ministries. She is an adjunct with Fuller Seminary and Azusa Pacific University.

Dr. Larry Dinkins

In 1980 Larry went to Thailand with OMF International. In 1981 he and his wife Paula started a church-planting ministry with leprosy patients in Central Thailand. Larry was founding director of the Chiang Mai Theological Seminary in 2000.

Dr. Elizabeth Brewster

Betty Sue is associate professor of Language and Culture Learning at Fuller Seminary. She grew up as an MK in Venezuela where she came to know the Lord and discovered her interest in languages at a very young age. She has since written several books and traveled in over 90 countries, teaching and consulting with missionaries.

Brad Buser

Brad spent 20 years living and working among the Itari people of Papua New Guinea, who before that time had never had outsiders live among them. He and his team were able to share Christ with the Itari people, disciple the new church and translate the New Testament. With the Church well established and thriving, their need to be among the Itaris was over. Since the year 2000 he and his wife have been Representatives with New Tribes Mission.

Staying on campus during the Perspectives course

Ways you will experience Mexico during your three-week stay:

Bonfire on the beach

Great homecooked meals on campus and special meals by our friends MaryChuy

Tuesday and/or Sunday markets in our neighborhood

Opportunities to see the sites of the city (museums, omnimax theater, malls, parks, zoo)

Ice cream, fresh fruit, and smoothies around the corner at the Michoacana

Room/Board Costs: If you stay on campus during the course, the cost is $400 (Jan. 17-Feb. 5)

Accomodations: Brand new, private dorms rooms with full bathrooms and hot water. One family, or 2-3 individuals per room. Rooms are insulated but unheated, so they can be cool in the winter, depending on the weather.

Getting here: If driving, plan to arrive on campus Sunday, January 17th and depart February 5th (PM) or 6th. Free airport pickups are also available at the San Diego airport on these dates.

Want to stay on campus or have questions? Write Kelly Hinz at kelly@bajabible.org or call at (619)730-2400. Space is limited, so reserve your place early.
