Baja Bible School Summer Internship Program

Who we're looking for:

We are putting together a group of four God-pointing, hard-working interns able to lead, follow, and learn. We encourage all strongly interested candidates to apply regardless of skill sets.

Skills sets:

Basic spiritual leadership. Ability to encourage. Ability to give Biblical counsel. Basic understanding of Biblical basis of missions

Any of the following: masonry, landscaping, concrete, gardening, plumbing, decorating, writing, film-making, photography, blogging ability, speaking ability, or general handiness and an ability to independently figure out building/landscaping problems

Character traits:

Loves Jesus - an evident and thankful recipient of God's grace

Humility – able to be a learner

Self-motivated. Pursues, accomplishes tasks competently with only basic instructions

Enjoys people and does not have a significant history of repetitive relationship friction

What we're requiring:

A two and a half month commitment: early June to mid August. Program participants will:

Do physical and/or marketing work on our campus depending on skill sets

Provide leadership for visiting groups. Possible duties include giving tours of campus, taking groups to ministry sites in Tijuana, communicating about BBS and Mexico, offering hospitality and spiritual encouragement, and at times leading in Bible study/prayer times

Complete reading assignments and written/oral responses (weekly 20-30 page readings on cross-cultural ministry topics from Mexico to Missions to Community Life to Bible)

Participate in Spanish classes and complete weekly language evaluation

Volunteer at a Tijuana ministry/church/non-profit of his or her choice one day a week

Share meals – summer program participants take turns preparing meals

Those who are selected for the program may bring a car, or fly into San Diego and be picked up. Public transportation in Tijuana is excellent and BBS has a car available to interns.

What we're offering:

Cross-cultural work/ministry experience

Leadership experience

Access to and teaching from veteran missionaries

Language program coordinated/taught by university-level Spanish teacher

Comfortable accommodations – rooms with hot water, private bathrooms, flush toilets

Low-cost opportunity to live in Mexico for the summer, with a group of young, like-minded Christians, near the beach, in the best climate in the world

Cost:

Unlike many similar programs, we are offering this program to qualified applicants free of charge. Living costs are estimated to be, at most $100/week. Interns will shop for and cook their own food and share the cost. We encourage, but do not require those who are accepted into the program to raise at least some support to help offset living expenses and as a means of encouraging and helping to connect their circle of influence to God's global purpose.

To apply:

You send (to the address below)

A one-page essay describing why you would like to participate in the program and how you correspond to what we are looking for. Use specific examples of your experience where possible.

A basic resume including, at least, work/volunteer experience and education

Each of your two references send

A reference letter. At least one of these should be from a pastor or church leader. These should comment on the desired Character Traits detailed above. Have your reference letters sent to the address below.
